3 days/2 nights the best choice

13 Oct 2018

We just came back from 3 great days on this cruise. The ship and the staff is excellent and so is the food! I would recommend to do the 3 days/2 nights tour if you have the time because on the extra day they take you on a beautiful trip away from the more touristic areas where you can enjoy the magnificent views on your own. You will also see a fishing village that you can discover on your own in a kayak.

Sublime

22 Sep 2018

My friend and I had the great pleasure of going on the three day Glory Legend cruise. While more expensive than some of its peers, the cruise was one of the most memorable adventures of our three weeks in Vietnam. We were the youngest on the boat (21), and while it is most suited for couples this didn't stop us having a great time. The limestone cliffs were spectacular. The only real blemish was that a few of the scenic lookouts including the caves were too crowded. Staggering these tourist hotspots over the course of a day would make the overall experience even better. The food and cocktails were a real highlight and the overall service was excellent. The spring roll making class and squid fishing, along with the kayaking around the pearl farm were also really enjoyable. I couldn't recommend this tour more!

Awesome service

01 Sep 2018

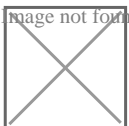

The Boat crew was extremely warm and friendly, made all the difference. Their bright smiles more than made up for their difficulty in understanding English. The Boat, though comfortable, needs better upkeep in the rooms. A 2-day-1-night trip is too rushed; we had a 3-day-2-night one is just perfect.

Dream cruise in Halong bay

11 Aug 2018

What to say..everything was perfect(cannot control the weather yet). From the good to the service, from the room to the activities. We really had a great time. The service is amazing. Dong was a super host and all the crew are so attentive. We had a great 3 days 2 night cruise. I highly recommend them.

Definitely worth the money!

The activities are well planned and quite constant, but if you prefer not to participate you are not pressured to do so. They serve a buffet self-serve breakfast, and a sit down 4 course gourmet (small portions meal) for lunch and dinner. The only thing they did not mention beforehand is that ALL drinks are charged, including each cup of coffee, tea and each bottle of water, except the complimentary small bottles left in your room at arrival.. You can however, travel with drinks onto the boat if you are aware of the charge for drinks. The boat itself looks like an antique, full dark wood vessel that is a pleasure to experience. All fees for activities are included in the fare, which include: kayaking, climbing 425 stairs to the top of a rock formation, visit to a fishing village, walk through a small cave and the third day a larger one, squid fishing off the back of the boat, two swimming opportunities (water was not clean enough for me to swim), bamboo boat trip, I think that might be it! The boat and rooms are kept clean, the staff very accommodating to all dietary requests and very friendly.
