Highlight of our trip

06 Oct 2018

My family and I booked a 2 day, 1 night cruise with Alisa Cruises after being recommended by family and friends. It was a completely beautiful experience. The natural beauty of the landscape alone is enough to make the long trip here but the staff and program at Alisa made it perfect and that much more memorable. The food was abundant, rooms impeccable, and service excellent. Our guide Ana was extremely friendly and helpful, also very knowledgeable about Halong Bay. The chefs and all crew members including Micheal and Chekee were also so inviting and energetic. I would recommened this cruise to anyone! A must-do in Vietnam!!

Money Did Not Matter

It was a little pricey trip for us as we do not earn much in work. But this whole trip just made us forget how much we've paid because of the hostility and services or rather just the whole trip in the cruise. Scenario was great although the best part is the whole facility. From dining table (spent a lot of time there due to several activities), to the room, to the jacuzzi too of course! Our host, receptionist, tour guide on islands/cave, named Anna or rather a nickname of AnnaBanana. She's really amazing and a lovely person. Overall, the best part of this cruise is the service from the whole team. Excellent!

This cruise was such a lovely experience for us! My boyfriend and I are not lovers of organised tours/excursions however we had a really great time - it didn't feel like organised, forced fun at all! The staff were all very friendly and attentive and the scenery was beautiful! One of the reasons it was so great for us was the food. We are vegans so it's not always easy to get a good meal in SE Asia, however they catered to us very well! During the buffet lunch & brunch they cooked us a variety of separate dishes and served it to us at our table. At the set dinner we had delicious food too, although the meat eaters food did look slightly more spectacular if I'm being honest. All in all a great experience and I'd definitely recommend!
