Great thing to do

30 Apr 2018

We loved this 2 day, 1 night cruise around Ha Long Bay. It was very relaxing and the food was superb (when isn?t it in Vietnam!) There?s about 35 people on board sleeping in 22 cabins and it?s a real mix of travellers. Great opportunity to meet new people and observe different cultures mixing. We had the hipster Germans, the aloof Poms, the cheeky Australians, the suave French, the quiet Vietnamese and the embarrassed Yanks all together with us humble New Zealanders. Good for chat and cultural observations. The crew were great, the boat is comfortable and the scenery was superb.

Jaw Dropping

We drove on a bus (4 hours) from Hanoi to Halong Bay and boarded the Bhaya Classic II junque for a two day one night excursion in Halong Bay. I only wish we had more time, it was nothing short of fantastic! The stunning scenery is incomparable to anything we have ever seen before and the water is a lovely shade of emerald or teal green. Once on board the junque, we were given our cabins which are quite adequate for a night. Then we were served a sumptuous lunch as we began to sail into the bay. The scenery is so stunning people kept jumping up from the tables and running out to take pictures. In the afternoon we had a choice of kayaking or getting into a rowboat to see a fishing village. After that we were brought to an area to jump off the junque to swim in Halong Bay. That was wonderful and we'll never forget it. They gave a cooking demonstration on the deck before dinner, how to make deep fried spring rolls and then turned it into a fun contest. We were served a 6 course meal for dinner and then squid fishing afterwards. Later in the evening a demonstration of how to make tea was given and it was very interesting. The following morning there was Tai Chi on the deck, followed by a very light breakfast then boarded a tender to do a tour of some caves. On return to the junque a full breakfast was served. The staff are all young and they are just amazing! We loved every single second on board the Bhaya Classic II and only wish we had more time to enjoy her and Halong Bay, a Unesco Heritage new wonder of the world.

Excellent 2 days/1 night on Ha Long Bay. Well looked after by the crew. Food was fantastic and plenty of choice. Activities enough to keep you entertained but also time just to sit and take in the scenery. Also made a nice do for my father's birthday

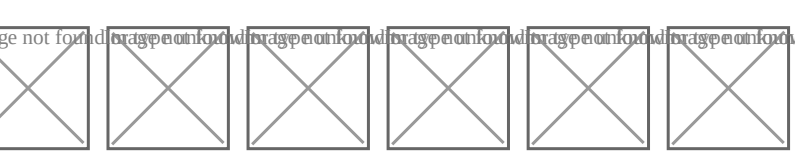

Excellent adventure.

We loved Bhaya Classic 3! Highly recommend!

12 Aug 2017

We recently travelled on Bhaya Classic 3 for the 1 night 2 day trip. We had the most amazing time and were pleasantly surprised by how luxurious, clean and comfortable the boat was. The food was delicious and they provided many great options for one of us who was a vegetarian. There were also many great drinks to choose from and we especially loved 2 for 1 cocktails during happy hour! The highlight of our trip was the amazing staff who were so helpful and approachable and helped to make the experience more exciting. They were also very entertaining and knowledgeable on the organised activities. Special mentions go to Tom ?Cruise? and Iris. We would definitely recommend this tour to anyone wanting to see Halong Bay!
