Our experience in Alisa Cruise has been amazing, specially due to the staff of the boat, Ana the Manager and Chris the guide that showed us the cave were adorable and very welcoming, making us feel at home. The activities are good and you don't have time to get bored as there are many options that you can do in the cruise. The food is pretty good as well, and it is a buffet so you can eat the amount you want. Alisa has been a good choice to know with them the Halong Bay.

Honeymoon stay at Alisa Cruise

10 Mar 2018

We had a wonderful overnight stay at Alisa Cruise. The experience was flawless from start to finish. Even before our visit the communication from Anna Pham and team helped us to answer any questions. The luxury limousine was also very comfortable and convenient for us! When we arrived at the cruise ship we were blown away by the personal details such as a beautiful bouquet of roses to celebrate our honeymoon. The crew were all extremely friendly and hospitable and made everyone on board feel at ease- particularly ?James Bond? with his great sense of humour. The range of food on board was fantastic and kept us from ever feeling hungry, which was much needed given the range of activities such as hiking and kayaking. The only slight shame was the amount of plastic in Halong Bay, which could be so easily eradicated if tourists collected some during their stay! The crew also very kindly sang to us and provided us with a free glass of wine to further celebrate our honeymoon and did the same for a couple's anniversary and another lady's birthday! All of these special details helped make this an unforgettable experience, one in which we will treasure forever.

Fantastic

We did the 2 night ,3 day trip on the Alisa boat, it was faultless, the staff were incredibly helpful and friendly, especially Alex, the cruise manager. Nothing was too much trouble. Our cabin was comfortable, very clean and panoramic views. The food was delicious. I would recommend doing 2 nights as on the second day you go off on another boat to more secluded parts of the bay. Would recommend this trip in a heartbeat.
