3 days 2 nights cruise with Azalea Cruise

01 Oct 2018

Our travel agent booked us 2 nights 3 days cruise with Azela Cruises. The boat was beautiful and cabins are spacious, with a good balcony and with a panoramic tub. Before boarding the cruise our travel agent told us that a storm is heading Halong bay and our cruise is to be shortened to 1 night. Nobody from the staff was willing to tell us anything about the plans and even our question to the cruise manager were responded evasively, even though it was clear that the plans were changed. As we were not sure who is right (our travel agent or the cruise manager), we were busy the first half day in trying to decide whether to change our plans and book alternatives or wait the next day. Only in the evening the cruise manager told everybody about the cancellation of the 2nd night and 3rd day, but didn't emphasize the changes in plans for the next day, so we missed most of the activities in the second half day as well. It felt like the cruise is organized like a
