3 Reviews

5 tars staff and food.

28 Apr 2018

The staff was very attentive and friendly. The food was really, really good. Overall positive, the sights are incredible, our room was perfect.

Relaxing with beautiful scenery

06 Apr 2017

We travelled as a family of six and had three rooms that were all quite spacious and good facilities. The boat itself is a little rustic but we enjoyed the character and style of the boat and because it can only accommodate 20 people it gives it a more relaxed approach. The food was fantastic, especially if you like fish and the trips were not too intense and were enjoyable, especially the fishing village and beach. The only negative for me was that drinks were very expensive and was a bit of a entrapment process as where else are you going to get drinks!!! Charging 4 dollars a beer was over the top. Apart from that we cannot fault the rest of the trip.

Great Service, Small Cabins

11 Feb 2017

We were in Bai Tho Junk for one night. The cabins are extremely small and the bathroom is so tiny, you have to stand around the WC for your shower. That being said, everything else was very nice. We hardly spent any time in the room. The deck is lovely for unwinding while watching the sunset. The service is good. Food was ok. They kept us
