Our Vietnam Adventure

18 Aug 2018

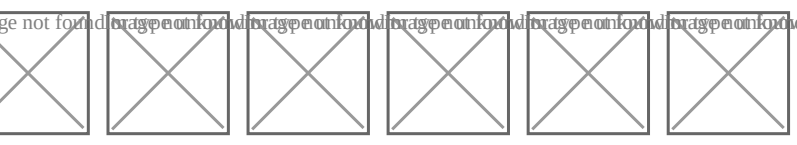

We took a trip to Halong Bay for three days and two nights and were very happy with our experience with Indochina Sails. We were collected by mini bus and driven the 3 hours to Halong Bay from Hanoi, where we met our guide and were then taken out to our boat. From the very start everything was perfect. The room/cabin was lovely and spacious with a door to a small balcony. The food for the whole trip was amazing! We were the only couple in our group to stay for two days, so when we got transferred to the day boat on the second day we had it all to ourselves complete with our own crew. We felt very special and were treated to a fun filled and exciting day. My Wife and I would certainly recommend Indochina Sails.

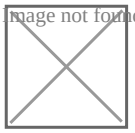

No words, just Perfect!

09 Jun 2018

Everything was perfect! Stayed on the boat 3 days/2 nights. The boat (maybe needs some renovation at some points but sea and salt are very aggressive, so some marks of the years seem normal) was so nice and really out of one of the pirates of the carribean Movies. Great Food! Breakfast and Dinner as Buffet, lunch as menu - very tasty and fresh! Prices for beverages are okay, not included in the Price for the cabin. The staff is very warm and welcoming, available at any time. The Programm is really nice. We did the suprise cave (biggest one in Halong Bay) and our guide David have us a Lot of Information. On the Second day, you Switch to a day boat (the Big one tansfer the other guests, who Stay only one night on the boat back). The day boat is also very comfortable with a sundeck and a climatisation in the Lounge. We were the First Group at every sight (very important, because it?s very crowded somtimes in the Bay), saw Monkeys and did the Kayak Tour through the floating village.

Great holiday

We had 2 nights on board and David was our captain and Wendy his side kick. Having sold the ship to many clients over the years it was good to have the opportunity to experience the trip. All staff were excellent, welcoming, professional and happy. Cabins were comfortable and clean and the food was excellent, even accommodating to the fact that we struggled with fish. Thank you David and staff we had fun, from the four guests that tipped on that day.
