Relaxing boat ride

Had Tommy guide us. He's hilarious and we wanted more of his jokes. The cruise was great, very photogenic. The cruise had great food and great entertainment. The swim was great as was the rowing under the limestone rocks. Maya doesn't go directly into halong bay as it's too touristy but goes near it. I'd definitely recommend Maya cruise to anyone wanting to experience this natural featur

Amazing!!!

Absolutely perfect 2 day and 1 night cruise. Lots of benefits of going to Lan Ha- shorter transfer and much quieter. David our guide was excellent-lots of information and chat. Really nice man who we enjoyed talking to and learning with. Transfer is very comfortable luxurious bus with WiFi and huge chairs. Comfort stop about half way to boat. Yousail to Lan Ha bay which is much quieter than Ha Long and also the bus transfer is much shorter. Small boat takes you on a very quick transferto the main boat. Greeted with a lovely welcome and a small welcome drink. Check in to room and served a 5 course lunch! The food was immense! We had a great room with a small balcony and very comfortable bed and great windows at the back of the boat. We then went kayaking and swimming. Scenery beautiful. Happy Hour on boat offers cocktails and spirits at buy 2 get 1 free! Brief cooking course where you try to make spring rolls. 5 course dinner-amazing! Boat is anchored at night so it is quiet. Breakfast-fresh eggs, fruit, cereals, bread. Then we went on a basket boat to come caves. You then return for a 5 course ?brunch?. Quick transfer back to port and then luxurybus back to Hanoi-returning at around 2pm. All of the staff on the cruise were so polite and friendly. We were visited at our hotel after the cruise by two members of staff from Maya asking about our trip-all I can say was it was perfect. They gave us the gift of some Vietnamese coffee and a small drip coffee maker. Unbelievable 5* service throughout.

Great experience with an amazing guide: SOI

30 Sep 2018

We stayed for 2 days 1 night in Maya Cruise and only regret not booking for more days. Every detail of our experience exceeded expectations mainly because there were 5 guests for 10 crew members in the cruise. Besides this VIP treatment, the rooms were very good, the boat is very new and clean, the whole activities were well thought to provide an unforgettable time and the food never disappoints, with frequent meals making sure we never stayed 2 minutes hungry. So overall experience was and will always be very good. However, I leave the best for the end of my comment. There was an extra factor that upgraded our trip to the next level: SOI. A young Vietnamese tour guide whose name means ?sticky rice?. Her simpathy, curiosity, knowledge, availability and generosity were crucial. I highly recommend asking for Soi's availability if you choose Maya for your cruise. She is destined for this type of job and will make sure - giving all her best - that one is always happy. She wouldn't need to do it though because her empathic smile (always on) would be enough. Thank you Soi for your amazing job. We hope life is as good for you as you are for others.

We had a lovely honeymoon ?? Nice rooms, small cruise, not too crowded. staff very considerate, helpfull. They do everything to make you happy. Tommy, David & Johny did their very best on their tours. Food very good, no big buffets but refined dining.

Excellent smaller cruise vessel

We really enjoyed staying on the boat for a one night cruise. The staff were very friendly especially our guide Tommy who spoke fluent English and was very switched on. The food was exquisite including a five course dinner and four course lunch, we did not expect the cuisine to be of such fine standard. We took part in the pre-breakfast Tai-Chi class and enjoyed the visit to local fishermen's village to see their traditional way of life and do a little swimming and cannoing. Highly recommend this cruise.
