Go for it!

It was a wonderful Cruise and stay was very well organized. Though the cruise is small with only 4 cabins, it was very clean and comfortable. We were lucky to be the only guests on deck and we felt like we were on a private luxurious boat. Guide (Nam) was very informative and caring person who took us to the bay, floating village, oyster forms, cultural caves and also for kayaking. The Crew was also friendly and super nice (espcially the caretaker Zung). The chef was great creator of tasty seafood cuisines. Cheers to the team! White Dolphin cruise - Strongly recommendable.

Food to die for!!

10 Mar 2018

Ngam & his colleagues of White Dolphin cruises gave us a memorable trip of Halong Bay that will remain etched in our memory for years to come. I feel a smaller ship (like the one we travelled in) with a capacity to host only 16 people is actually just perfect to enjoy the calm & serenity of the beautiful Ha Long Bay. We got lucky thought....that night there were 6 guests including us, and the whole boat was OURS!!!!. For a seafood fanatic, this is the right place to be. Fresh crabs, clams, oysters, fish, prawns, squids and the works cooked by the in house chef was super delicious and almost had a home like feel to it. Loads of activities on board for you to engage in or one can choose to just relax and soak in the beauty of a magical sunset on a sail off the Ha Long Bay. It's a must for anyone who visits Vietnam!

Highly Recommend

17 Feb 2018

I would highly recommend this tour to anyone! My husband and I were onboard for one night, the ship was great, staff were so attentive and the food was SO GOOD (almost too much of it) We did a cave tour, kayaking, spring roll making and went and visited the famous floating villages... all of which was made even more fun by our guide Nam.
