5 Reviews

We toured the much more peaceful bai thu bay, far more quiet but just as fantastic a site as Ha Long bay. We boarded a luxury boat with beautiful quarters including a bath. The hospitality and friendliness of the staff was second to none, Milkman entertained with his hilarious magic tricks. The food was amazing 5 and seven course meals were the order of the day. The highlight was undoubtedly Kayaking in the bay itself a really peaceful adventure that I doubt you could have on the much busier Ha Long Bay

One day cruise for 7 people. Meals included. Drinks surcharge. Despite the seasonal haze the landscape is breathtaking. Very attentive staff. Note guide was very friendly. We went kayaking, visit a cave, the fishing village. The meal on board was very nice. We can only strongly recommend

Good cruise to experience Halong Bay

You've some gems

We had a great time. Cabin was very nice, we were pleasantly surprised with the quality of the bathroom. Staff were excellent. We did not like being taken to large tourist ?shopping centre? on the way to and from Halong.

Interesting itinerary

01 Jan 2015

I want to say you that me and my wife we had a fantastic time on your boat, it has been one of the best part of our trip in Vietnam. Also the tour in Yen Duc Village has been a fantastic experience: excellent lady guide, water puppet, fishing and dinner. The driver also has been good. Maybe the guide is not so necessary on board in order to have more privacy. I don't want to say that the person was no good. I think that the staff of 5 people in a small boat may be is too much? and the waiter who speaks english could be sufficient
