wonderful days in Vietnam

30 Mar 2019

Just back to German a few day, I missed the wonderful days in Vietnam so much. And one of my favorite tour in this beautiful country was in Phong Nha area. I had a half day to walk in Botanic Garden, the garden is very large, there are many beautiful trees and flowers. I think it s very suitable for families to picnic.Highly recommend, it would not take too much time of you.

Amazing tour!

My family and I spent the whole morning walking in the Botanic Gardens. The entrance to the park is located on the main road so it is very convenient to travel. The park is large with thousands of ornamental plants, tall old trees and beautiful flower gardens. My son loves the long, shady road that runs through the park.

Unforgettable time!

I often have a good feeling with the parks and botanic garden, so when hearing Phong Nha have a botanic garden, I didn't hesitate to spend a half day in it. This is a large garden with many big trees, and treasured plants and flowers. I was introduced about the situation of rare plants so detail. The garden is spacious and airy. Lazily walking around the garden and having fun with some friendly animals there. Worth visiting!!!

Such a beautiful garden, I was so lured with the gentle voice of the guide. She spoke English very soft, and told us very detail about the species and creatures in the garden. She always smiled and answered every questions of us. I really appreciate it!!
