Trip Overview

Hoi An is an ancient town located in the lower section of Thu Bon River, Quang Nam Province, about 30 kilometers south of Danang city. It is also a land mark recorded much of the mixture of acculturation. The architecture of the city reflects the influence of chinese, japanese, portuguese, french and british traders. Hoi An is considered as a living museum of architecture and urban lifestyle.

The morning walking tour is a good introduction to the history and people of Hoi An. Our guide accomodated our request to have a local breakfast and the best part of this tour is eating Soup Bone by the sidewalk. We learned and entertained by the cultural show. Would appreciate it if we would be informed that we could haggle about the prices offered during the tour such as silk and tea.

Our guide was a very nice young man. He was very informative and was happy to answer all of our questions. He didn't mind us even popping into shops along the way. He made us feel very welcome.

Enjoyable half day

Our guide was very knowledgeable and showed us things we probably would n't have found ourselves. Gave a good overview for when we subsequently visited on our own.

All in good

A very good tour that covered the main existing parts of Hoi An. It would have been useful to be given a quick historical overview but all in all a good tour.
