Itineraries

Hoi An - Hai Van pass - Hue city - Hoi An

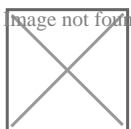

7:00 local guide pick up you at the hotel's lobby and then depart for Hue. Hue is one of places which has many cultural heritages. Up to now, there is no places like Hue where still remains a lot of original historical vestiges such as : Royal palaces, beautiful tombs of Nguyen Kings, tens of pagodas constructed more than 300 years ago. Besides, Hue is a place where the royal music,sophisticated handicraft and traditional famous dishes originated. Hue, the ancient capital of Vietnam, is classified by the government as a very precious property and on December 1993 Hue was recognized as a World Cultural Heritage Site by UNESCO.

We drive across the spectacular Hai Van pass and the scenic fishing village of Lang Co. Once in Hue, visit the ancient capital before taking a boat to the beautiful Thien Mu pagoda. Have lunch in a local restaurant. Visit the royal tombs of Khai Dinh or Tu Duc. These are two among the 13 kings of the Nguyen dynasty which lasted from 1802 until 1945. On the returning trip to Hoi An, stop incense stick making village.

There is not so much to do in Hue. But visiting the Citadel is a must do!
It's beautiful restored and you can easily walk for hours. Come early!

Must see

22 Feb 2019

Beautiful place. There is a lot destroyed in the Vietnam War but there is more than enough to see. New reconstructions are coming.

Wow, incredible place

18 Feb 2019

One can only imagine what this Palace must have been like when it was in its glory. Such a shame that large parts have been destroyed. It is an amazing place to visit, a must for when you are in Hue!

First Stop in Hu

15 Feb 2019

The Imperial City is the anchor to the sites in Hu. It's architecture is splendid and walking around the campus is a charm. Highly recommended.

A serenity feeling

16 Jan 2019

You re going to hue, mainly for this visit. Take your time (4hr), and look at all the details. The story of the 13 kings is so amazing. The buildings are so amazing. If interested i would suggest that you read some book of vietnam history before your visit.
