Itineraries

Cai Be Floating Market

06.30 - 06.45 AM: Pick up and begin the trip to Cai Be by car/van. You will move through Trung Luong Expressway to the destination.

Upon arrival in Cai Be, have a boat ride to remaining site of a very renowned wholesale floating market on Tien River many years ago. This site entitles you to know something about the local trading habit that has changed due to the age of the modern society when more terrestrial transportation and high-technique of agriculture have dominated everywhere. There, you can realize how diverse the area is and how rich orchard gardens are, which makes it the basket of fruit in the lower part of the Mekong River.

Ramble in small villages where you will uncover the beauty of Ba Kiet ancient house and get to know about the indigenous culture. Make a short visit to a small family business where the locals are making coconut fudges and crispy rice popcorn. Savor delicious fresh fruit and feel slow rhythms of Southern Vietnamese folk music – a kind of music entwined with the life and culture of the Mekong Delta people.

Paddle through small canals – an exciting experience since you can look around, unwind and soak up the wonderful atmosphere of the Upper Mekong Delta. Additionally, after arrival in Tan Phong Island, let yourself immerse in the tranquility of nature.

At the lunchtime, you not only enjoy luscious food, but also get closer to the locals as it is a chance to learn how to prepare Vietnamese specialties. The meal is cooked by your own and served in the heart of the local garden.

Take a cycling trip along the village path through orchards. Meanwhile, have some short stops to meet local people who help you understand more about the daily life in the Mekong Delta.

Get back to the dock by sampan and then take the bus back to Ho Chi Minh City.

18:00 - 18:30 drop-off at hotel in Ho Chi Minh city. End the trip.

Floating market, kayaking and biking

01 Apr 2019

The floating market does not have many sellers. The people actually live and work on the boat. Kayaking and biking were good experiences. The lunch was good. We didn't get to go to the fruit plantations, but we can see the fruits trees when we biked through the village.

Must-do tour

24 Mar 2019

Friendly and approachable tour guide who show the unique side of Ho Chi Minh City and able to share more of the tour. However, the floating market is rather small and very touristy. But it was a commendable effort and good sights to the local lifestyle. Thumbs up and recommended.

Very good day trip, experience local water life

The day trip is very fulfilling, the team leader is very caring and always takes care of every visitor. I want to know the local life in Vietnam, including the floating market, coconut sugar making, rice making, riding ankle, and canoe.
