"Absolutely unforgettable experience!"

25 Sep 2018

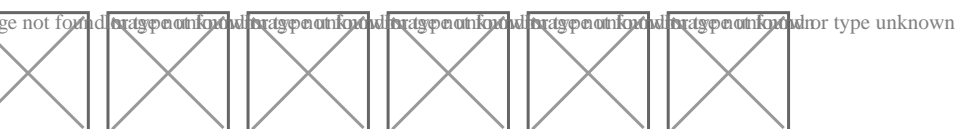

So so SO pleased with this group of river cruise experts!! Everything right from booking to going home was easy, we were greeted personally at the pier when we arrived with our very friendly host. We were not pressured or made to feel uncomfortable as you may have experienced with some operators on your travels, we felt like friends or family going out on the boat together, with mum cooking a delicious (I mean seriously good) meal while Auntie tells you stories and local knowledge about the rivers, the city and Cambodia itself. Not only this, but we learnt about the owners themselves and that they are in fact running a non profit children's orphanage which proceeds from the boat tour go to, absolutely can't wait for my next trip back to Cambodia hopefully I can bring a bigger group along!

"A great experience, well worth doing"

"Fabulous night out with excellent food"

Excellent food service and drinks. Great night out with excellent value for money! The only tricky thing was trying to find the correct pier for the boat as they aren't particularly well marked! Give yourself ample time to find it- in saying this it is well worth the hunt

"Great service!"

We really enjoyed the cruise. We have a 3 month baby and brought him along. The staff were great with him. They volunteered to hold him while we ate. Food was delicious.

"Delicious food and leisurely ride."

A very nice boat trip. I thought we would go farther, but in the end, it was simply nice to be with friends on the water. They will make menu accommodations for vegetarians-just let them know in advance.
