This is an excellent cruise down the Mekong River, with two cultural excursions every day. The rooms were great with ensuites and comfy beds and the best part was the happy hour whilst catching up with fellow passengers about the days activities

Superb

17 Apr 2017

We, a mature couple, spent a 3 night cruise on the boat that proved to be a superb way of seeing the Mekong. Everything about this boat was great from the moment we boarded on day one to the moment we left after 3 nights. The staff were friendly, efficient and helpful in every way. The cabins are more than adequate with excellent on-suite facilities. Fresh food was served at every meal with a significant range every meal. The alcoholic drinks are not expensive and available as and when required. Tea & coffee are complimentary as is bottled water. The side trips from the boat were interesting and memorable. There is wifi available, free of charge, but this is not always particularly strong. The cruise is a superb experience.
