Joining a special tour to explore Mekong Delta from Phnom Penh, Cambodia

Taking a motor boat trip to see the floating fish farm and the floating village, visit the wild birds Sanctuary

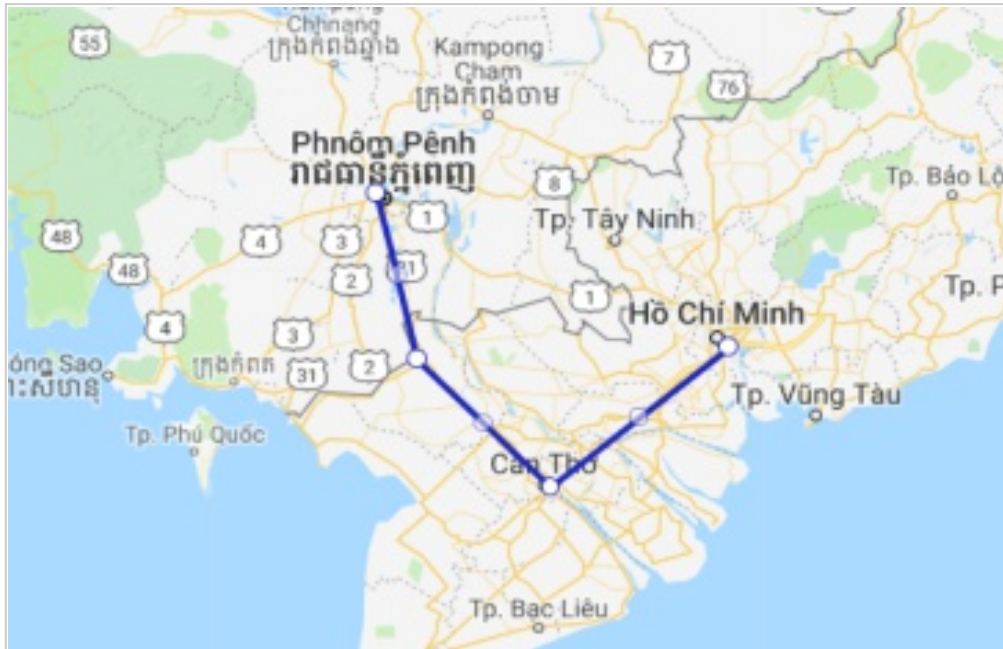

Exploring the picturesque tributaries of the Lower Mekong River (Bassac River), Mekong daily life at the Cai Rang floating market

Trip Overview

Mekong Delta is also known as Vietnam's 'rice basket'-- a fertile area spreading nearly 50,000 sq km. Here the mighty Mekong river ends by splitting itself into nine major tributaries. The Vietnamese name these nine tributaries "Nine Dragons." Unlike our tours, this schedule is designed to help you experience local daily activities along the Mekong from Phnom Penh, Cambodia. Let's come and join us.

It was once in a lifetime experience and we are so glad we did it. Our guide was well informed and engaging.

Amazing tour with exceptionnel guide

15 May 2018

We just arrived at Ho Chi Minh City with this tour and that was definitely the best way to make it here from Phnomh Penh ! A lot of this is thanks to our fantastic guide Lily. She was amazing from the start to the end, and we really feel like we get to know much more of the locals culture and habits and saw amazing sites, like the flooded forest and floating market. She took such a good care of us, made us try so many locals drinks and food, and everything in a really friendly and relaxed atmosphere. Minor glitches when we arrived at Chau Doc because timing confusion on our boat arrival, but everything was forgotten once you arrived at the amazing Victoria hotel at the top of Sam Mountain ! Big thank you to Lily for making this tour so special to us !

An unforgettable experience - amazing value for money.

Amazing, good value for money but too many unnecessary stops.

25 Dec 2017

We had a great guide. Lot of time on the big bus though.
accommodation was great for the money. . Not that much time was spent on the Mekong. Food was great. The boat handled our Cambodia visas .. stress free. Just take $34 usd and a photo.
