Excellent gastronomic and cultural discovery

24 Feb 2019

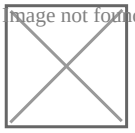

We took the food tour as a group, we were 7 in total. We tasted 7 different dishes (soup, mini panini, salad, noodles, rice pancakes, nem, and finally sweet rice with coconut ice cream), all very good. Our guide, was very dynamic and eager to share her knowledge of Vietnamese culinary culture (and Vietnam in general). Congratulations and thank you!

Highly Recommended

A great start in Hanoi! You get to know new restaurants and dishes and through the local guide you learn about culture, food and land. Rosie has us very sympathetic and competently around! Highly Recommended! I would do it again anytime

Mango food tour

Great utensil instruction, awesome food & good food stories. Highly recommend! Coconut ice divine, bhanh cuon so delicate, egg coffee was rich and yummy.

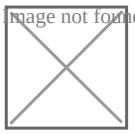

Do it!

Our street food tour was arranged by our agency and we had a guide who did only such tours because he has a day job as an MD! He took us to four cafes in the Old Quarter and each one was fantastic. This is the only way for tourists to go in terms of street food because of the risk of less-than-sanitary conditions. And if you're tall and overweight like I am, be prepared for the short stools you'll be sitting on. Also if you are chopstick-challenged, no worries. They all have forks available.

Well worth visiting

The guide was very thoughtful, asked everyone in the group about allergies and food preferences and served the tour route for all of us. Not only could he told us all about the stories related to the food we were eating, but he was also very knowledgeable about the history of Hanoi and Vietnam in general and could answer any question.
