Homestay village

19 Dec 2018

The village is still keep many things that is very cultural . People is friendly and hard working. The house?s architecture is traditional with basements for the animals living or stored. Up floor for family living. Having many plan and flower on the street and in the rice field. Hope the village always keep clean and culture

Great time in Mai Chau

17 May 2018

Great time in wonderful Mai Chau area and villages around. Had a cool bicycle ride and a walk in the Valley to discover the ricefields and Thai houses & living environment. Our guide is a great guide who explained a lot about local ethnies. He also had so many ideas to shoot photos and videos so I now have unforgettable memories of the days spent in this beautiful area. So much fun ! Thanks again

Mai Cheu adventure

19 Dec 2017

Incredible trip to Mai Chau. Arrived to a delicious lunch prepared at a home stay. This was followed by a bike ride around the local village with plenty of photo opportunities. Our Guide Chung was a superb host, he really went out of his way to make sure we had everything we needed. I really enjoyed the delicious food, trekking around the beautiful rice fields and learning about local life. I have never seen bubbles being blown from the stem of a leaf before

Tranquil village, rich in ethnic culture.

25 Sep 2015

Our family did a two-night homestay here, and it's quite pleasant. The village was really peaceful, the air was fresh and the villagers were friendly. We had a wonderful experience by helping out the house owner with his field work.
