Beautiful but poor areas

Nice! we supported a lot for local people in highland of Vietnam. They are very poor and friendly and we hope that after our project their life will be better. Still need more support from Student and traveler

I hope people don't judge the tour due to weather

This was an incredible overnight tour, such an amazing experience. Sapa was so beautifully breathtaking, it was surreal. The treks were so much fun, and the mud some of these people described made it even more fun. For the other reviews that gave this tour less stars because you are trekking in muddy terrain and rice fields is not the tours fault... you have to know what you are getting yourself involved in. It really was not as difficult as some described, it was very enjoyable and slow paced to enjoy every little bit of scenery. Every direction you looked was just... wow. The hotel we stayed in was very nice, with an amazing view. Everything seemed to be organized, and our tour guide was very sweet and knowledgeable. The only thing that I disliked was the fact that the sleeper bus, on the way to Sapa from Hanoi, was not the same company of our actual tour which I did not know. I got on the sleeper bus from Hanoi thinking everyone on the bus was part of our tour, which is not the case turns out no one that bus was on our tour which I thought was strange. It made me nervous thinking I wasn't on the right bus, but when we got off at Sapa at our stop, there was my tour guide with my name on a sign. Overall I highly recommend, it was such a great experience!

Don't ruin the environment of such beautiful place!!!

Sapa is a must visit for people going to Hanoi. The bus trip is certainly different a lay down bus but the hotel where we stayed was very comfortable and the meals there were excellent. Our guide on the walks went out of his way to explain everything and to answer all questions. The only disappointing aspect is the amount of rubbish in the rivers and everywhere on the ground. The authorities will need to do something to clean this up before it becomes a health hazard both for the environment and for the people of the area.

Everything was perfect

26 Dec 2017

My group of 12 people visited Hanoi and completed this 6-day tour. The whole trip was well planned with precision without any delay. We are very satisfied the most with the tour guide in Sapa. He was talkative and very accommodating.

Value for money. Excellent service

12 Nov 2017

I told the sales staff about all my queries about Sapa, Halong and Hanoi. She helped us organize everything and quick response to us via email. It was a pleasure to receive service from her. At Sapa, our local guide was super awesome. Our journey was very seamless with welcome until we returned to our country, all excellent. The hotel was also very cozy.
