In the morning, 8:00 start your trip, board a boat for a trip on the Perfume River to visit the towering Thien Mu Pagoda, one of the most famous Vietnamese landmarks. burning.

We then take a short drive into a lush valley of the river where seven tombs were built for seven Nguyen emperors. Each is an expression of the unique personality of the man whose remains it holds and each is comprised of three elements: a temple dedicated to the worship of the deceased emperor and his queen, a stone stele that records the biographical and historical high points of his life, and the royal tomb itself. We will visit two of the tombs of emperors Minh Mang and Khai Dinh before driving outside of town for a lunch of classic Hue cuisine at a restaurant in a beautiful garden setting.

We also visit the Forbidden Purple City, originally built in the early 1800s for the personal use of the emperor and staffed by eunuchs who posed no threat to the royal concubines. Nearly destroyed in the Tet Offensive, the ruins today house the Royal Library and the grounds flourish with mimosa plants and vegetable gardens.

19 Feb 2019

We were a small group of 6 people. Our tour was from Hanoi to Ho Chi Minh City for 12 days, visiting Hailong Bay, Hue and Hoi An on the way. It was well organized and very interesting. The most highlight was the overnight cruise in Halong Bay with my wife and the night market in Hoi An. Food tours in Hanoi were also good.

Very enjoyable trip to Vietnam

We had a great time in Vietnam. All of our tour guides are very knowledgeable and friendly. Our operator was extremely helpful, I and my friend didn't have to worry about anything - that's exactly what you want for a vacation like this. Although it was only 12 days, we saw a lot about Vietnam when the day tour covered a lot! Highly recommend for all!!!
