Did the Vietnam and Cambodia trip and have to say that the trip was excellent and Kimhoun sets the standard for excellence as a guide. Included transportation was good and arranged well. Meals included at the hotel's were average and the few dinners included were good and tied to worthwhile charities. The meals that Kimhoun scouted out for us were all excellent. We were lucky and did have a group without difficult people or egos, but Kimhoun really went the extra steps to accommodate everyone. He is honestly the best.

Amazing holiday from start to finish! Some of the hotels weren't great but only needed some renovations/ fresh paint/ new linens! Transport was good - overnight train was fun and really clean and comfortable - tuc tuc rides are a great way to see everything- buses were always clean with air con which we needed but sometimes could have done with a bit more space for bags and a bit more leg room!! Breakfast selection varied from place to place - some great some-not so much but never bad food! Service at every hotel was great and staff were all friendly and helpful!! Kimhoun was an amazing guide who took such good care of us all the time - he encouraged us to try everything and do everything to totally experience life where we were -he arranged everything for us so we literally had nothing to worry about!! I can't recommend him highly enough!! Never a dull moment with our group who got on really well together

The tour was a solid well designed well-coordinated tour which (I think) covered most of important Vietnam and Cambodia sites. Halong Bay and Angkor Thom were the tour locational highlights. The hotels were all centrally located, very comfortable and had good breakfast offerings. The tour manager got us to all scheduled events with little effort on our part, introduced us to many local foods and situations and acted as interpreter and financial front man to get us involved in many enjoyable events. Nothing of the tour was jaw dropping exceptional. The hotels were solid 3 star, the transport were via clean comfortable buses, trains or planes. The food was generally solid local cuisine with some unusual offering for the adventurous
