One of our top experiences.

01 Aug 2019

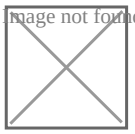

This has to be a must do if you are in Vietnam for a week or more. Our boat was well equiped, the food was lovely and the crew wonderful. We had three days, two nights on board our boat and the whole experience was a real memory. The shore excursions were not too long and well organised.

A Wonderful Experience

23 Jan 2018

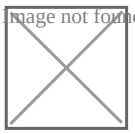

We spent one night on the Mekong Eyes. It was a relaxing and interesting way to experience the Mekong River. The staff were helpful and knowledgeable and we met some amazing people onboard. This cruise is an opportunity to sit back and relax whilst taking in the scenery as you cruise by.

Glad we experienced this way of life

28 Dec 2017

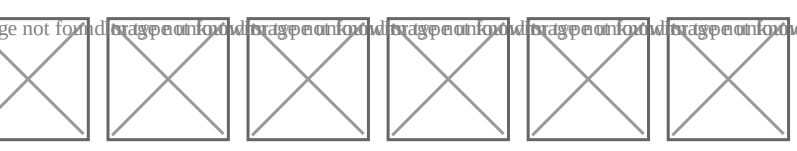

We took a 3days/2night cruise on the Mekong Eyes.It certainly gave us look at how different life here is when compared to HoChiMinh City.We were picked up in HCMC and taken by Road to Can Tho,where we boarded the boat.Our cabin was small but very comfortable.The bathroom compact,with a toilet,shower and basin.We had a walking tour in a small village,a trip on a rowing sampan,a cooking class on board and a trip to Cai Rang floating market.Also visited a family owned noodle producing family and a family owned candy factory.The food was a set menu but changed each day and there was a happy hour.As it's a small boat there was a nice interaction between the guests.The staff were all friendly and informative.We had a very interesting and relaxed time on board before our Road trip back to our hotel in HCMC

Beautiful

well organised, great way to see how life on the Mekong River moves

11 Apr 2017

the staff on the boat, Hayden and Kim, Dave who took us by bus to Chau Doc, and Lee and John who accompanied us on the boat to Phnom Penh were all sensational. The restored junk was beautiful with a larger than expected bedroom, offered great food and well organised tours. The overnight hotel in Chau Doc, the Victoria was a beautiful relic of days past. Cannot recommend the trip highly enough
