Discover Sapa: A must!

09 Apr 2018

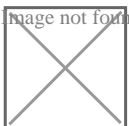

Very nice stay, we loved the area and its people. Our guide was great and very attentive to our well being. The night trip by train back and forth was painful but it is the price to pay to see this beautiful corner.

A place should not be missed

28 Sep 2016

The rice field terraces, the beautiful and friendly people with their traditional clothes, seeing how they live and work, being saddened by the poverty while charmed by their smiles. There are so many aspects here which are not justified by words. You have to experience it yourself. Spend as much time in the Sa Pa area as you can?

Halong Bay and Sapa Tour

19 Nov 2015

We did both Halong Bay and Sapa tour 3 nights (2 on the train 4 persons in 1 cabin 2 ways and 1 in hotel sapa) with charming travel. They offer a free pick up from airport with a private car to our hotel in Old Quater of Hanoi. Great! We have a special guide (Tommy - Sorry to forget vietnamese name) who escorted us from the beginning till end of the program. Arrange the good timing for the pick up Halong tour 2 days and sending us to the train station to exchange the train tickets. Tommy brought us to the cabin of the train. Tommy has an understandable English, and he has a very good knowledge. And the places were stunning. We highly recommend everyone to see both places. Trekking is a must do thing for Sapa. You can see nice rice terraces and a small waterfall near the village.

Amazing SAPA !!!
