In the morning:

09:00 AM Our tour guide will welcome you at your hotel then take you to the Ho Chi Minh complex. You can take the chance to visit:

1. Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum: where the body of the president is kept.

Opening time: 5 days per week, except Monday and Friday.

Cold seasons (from November to March) 8:00 a.m – 11:00 a.m

Hot seasons (from April to October): 7:30 a.m – 10:30 a.m

Closed once per year in October/ November/or December for the body maintenance

No camera, cell phone, bare-shoulder T-shirts, or mini skirts are allowed inside

2. Ba Dinh Square: Where Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum lies, is a historical site where President Ho Chi Minh read the Independence Declaration of Vietnam on September 2nd, 1945.

3. Ho Chi Minh's Residence: Refusing to live in the Presidential Palace, President Ho Chi Minh lived in a normal electrician's house nearby. And then Uncle Ho moved to stay in the House on stilt until he passed away.

4. One Pillar Pagoda: An ancient pagoda built in 1049 under the Ly Dynasty (Remember to wear full-length clothes when you visit any pagoda).

5. Ho Chi Minh Museum: Exhibiting the life of Ho Chi Minh and the history of wars against invaders.

After that, you will have time to visit the Temple of Literature – the first University of Vietnam and also the place to worship the Confucius. This is often cited as one of Hanoi's most picturesque tourist attractions. Originally built as a university in 1070 dedicated to Confucius, scholars and sages, the building is extremely well preserved and is a superb example of traditional-style Vietnamese architecture.

This ancient site offers a lake of literature, the Well of Heavenly Clarity, turtle steles, pavilions, courtyards and passageways that were once used by royalty. Visiting the Temple of Literature you will discover historic buildings from the Ly and Tran dynasties in a revered place that has seen thousands of doctors' graduate in what has now become a memorial to education and literature.

In the afternoon:

You can stop by any food stall or local restaurant for lunch (recommended by our student) before continue walking to explore Hanoi's Old Quarter & French Quarter at 2:00 PM. This tour will help you to discover place which is famous with "36 guild streets" in the past time and also discover the charm of this imprinted French architecture area.

Tour ends at around 5:00 PM.

Our first day in Hanoi, we saw so much and learnt so much. Thanks to Harry & Lim who were so nice and very knowledgeable about the city and its history.

Hanoi tour

08 Feb 2019

The guide showed us around Hanoi for two hours in February and it was fantastic. The tour included walking around the French quarter and to various sites around the lake. He has fantastic English speaking skills and was very funny and friendly. If you have a short time in Hanoi, definitely take part in this tour to understand more about the Vietnamese culture!

Best way to explore Hanoi

01 Feb 2019

I had three walking tours in one day, and I must say it was the best way to experience Hanoi in short time. I started out with the Ho Chi Minh/Literary temple tour with our guide. He was very knowledgeable and the tour was very educative. After a lunch break, I continued with a tour of the French quarter and old part of Hanoi. He was charming and also gave tips on where to go for munchies. Back at the office it was time to head out again for the food tour. The group was taken to different places and Lan took us to places we tourists never would have found, and we tried many fine new Vietnamese dishes. Thank you very much for a fantastic day. I will definitely recommend anyone I know to book a tour with you.

Perfect private Tour

20 Jan 2019

My Girlfriend and I booked the ?Ho Chi Minh Complex & Temple of Literature Tour?. It was perfect! Our guide took great care and was very entertaining and funny :). He presented Vietnams History in a very vivid way. We learned a lot and had a really good time! Highly recommend!!!

Good for first-timers

23 Oct 2013

It was a great time going through the various sights of Hanoi. Local student guide helped us see the real Hanoi with all the beautiful museums and the delicious food around. We went to most of the tourist spots that tourists go, although if it's not your first time to go to Hanoi, then there would be better places to go to. Also, if you would like to try to try other street food, it would be better to do it outside of the scheduled tours. The guides were helpful in providing information to us when needed, and even additional information that we have not found in magazines and reviews (which makes it more valuable than we thought it would be.) It was an excellent tour overall.
