Itineraries

Tour Program

08.00 Transfer from Hanoi to Thanh Chuong palace, 50-minutes drive from central Hanoi.

09.00 Start by exploring Thanh Chuong's studio that is filled with antiques the artist had painstakingly collected over the course of his life. Ceramics, statues, art and sculptures fill the awe-inspiring 'House of the Auspicious Clouds'. Surrounding the structure is a perfectly preserved 100-year old stilt house from the Muong hill tribe. The 'House of Serenity' a typical Northern Vietnamese-style house dating back some hundred years. As well as this there is a simple earthen house and other antique structures which offer fascinating insight into Vietnam's cultural legacy.

11.00 A short distance to Giong Temple. This is the temple worship Thanh Giong, one of the immortal Vietnamese popular four people.

12.00 Drive back to Hanoi and drop off at your hotel. End of service.

Beautiful place

04 May 2019

This place is really beautiful and I got a better insight into Confucianism. We had the luck to witness a graduation ceremony which was great fun.

An interesting place. It has all traditional architecture of old North of Vietnam. It's about 45 minutes (by car) from Hanoi center

Thanh Chuong Viet Palace

24 Feb 2019

Thanh Chuong Viet Palace was another interesting place to visit while in town! Interesting place to see!

Fascinating village of old houses

16 Feb 2019

The artist Thanh Chuong, assembled or built a number of structures in an exceedingly charming arrangement, dotted with his ceramic sculptures and other artwork. About half an hour outside Hanoi. Plan on spending a couple hours. Ok restaurant on site for lunch.

Lovely Presentation

What an excellent overview of Vietnamese history in one place. We spent several hours here and felt we had learned so much at departure. Arriving first thing in the morning meant we pretty much had the place to ourselves which is a shame because it's a gem. The drive from the city was refreshing, also.
