Great trip ever

23 Mar 2019

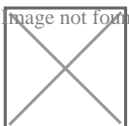

Great trip ever! We rented a cano to travel to Bay Canh, another small island in Con Dao. After 30 minutes, we arrived at a sparkling patch of water just off the coast of Bo Dap beach. Then we traveled to Bay Canh island and spent a whole night in there. We were so eager to see the sea turtles because we know that this island is renowned for having some of the greatest concentrations of marine turtle nesting sites in the Con Dao National park archipelago. And luckily we had seen them, so glorious moments.

Bay Canh Island is incredibly beautiful

Bay Canh Island is incredibly beautiful. I would like to highly recommend taking a snorkeling or diving tour and staying on the island until evening when the turtles lay their eggs. According to our trip this time, the best time to visit for this experience is August to September.

I love Vietnam

02 Mar 2019

Leaving Vietnam nearly 15 years, this is the first time I am back to Vietnam, I with my relatives in father's side had a trip to Con Dao 3 days. The second day we had a canoe trip to Bay Canh island, where we expect to see turtles laying eggs. In the evening, we went to the beach and waited for the scared moments, but we didn't see that. A bit disappointed but we surely will come back to see turtles laying eggs one day.

Excellent tour!!!

02 Mar 2019

Indeed, this is an excellent tour!!! No exaggeration, I had enjoyed a full happy day in Bay Canh island. Visit the sea turtle conservation area was the most impressive experience in the trip, I was so eager to see turtle laying eggs, but it was not in the breeding season of turtles, do hope to see firsthand turtles laying eggs.

Bay Canh was so gorgeous

12 Feb 2019

I was so obsessed with seasickness but I still decided to book this tour to explore Bay Canh island. The sea was quiet that day so I didn't feel tired anymore. Bay Canh island is so beautiful, sunset in Bay Canh was so gorgeous, I already fell in love with the sea and seascape here.
